

Hail to thee, Mamata Di , the Saviour of the Land and People. The War of Heaven comes to an end with justice meted out to man. Let us all celebrate the Singur Divas as not a mere victory but also as a pathbreking event soon to find its way in history. A true leader translates vision into reality, so does our beloved leader. Didi made dreams come true. She left the realm of Flora and the Old Pan in order seek the miseries of the human heart. She voiced the mute utterances of the voiceless. She embraced the miseries of the poor and helpless as if they were hers. She was one who could see beyond her bourne. WBCUPA salutes her as the Leader Immortal. No hungry generations tread her down. We invite all our fellow members to celebrate Singur Divas through their writings in our website.
